STUDENT RESEARCH
From first-year undergrads to PhD dissertations, students are vital to inquiry at UBC.

THE TALE OF TWO HOMES: STUDYING SUSTAINABILITY THROUGH COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP

How can we build sustainable, greener homes? Bring together UBC Okanagan, Wilden Real Estate, AuthenTech Homes, Okanagan College, and FortisBC for the Wilden Living Lab joint research project.

A "home of today" constructed to the standard residential building code. A "home of tomorrow" equipped with cutting-edge energy-efficient technologies. A family living in each, and a team of UBC engineers using sensors to monitor and compare energy-use patterns over three years.
